Keeper's Log, 12 October 1902

Wind north-west, fresh. Lamp lit at 5.40 p.m. and burning well all night.

Schooner Mary Ann passed inbound at 9 p.m. showing proper lights.

Oil on hand: forty-one gallons. Cleaned the lens at dawn.